MANY BIDDERS FOR BIC FICHT.

Competition Begun by Various Club Promoters.

Fight promoters throughout the country have already begun to bid for the ortant fistic battles between Ruhlin and Jeffries and the champion and Sharkey, which are scheduled to take place respectively next May and June. So far three offers have been received for the fights. They come from Hermann J. Witte, of Cincinnati; Tom O'Rourke, of this city, and A. P. Pickett, of Memphis, Tenn.

Witte is willing to give a purse of $15,000 or $0 per cent, of the gross receipts for a fight between either Jim Corbett and Jim Jeffries or between the latter and Gus Ruhlin, and O'Rourke will give 60 per cent, of the receipts for Jeffries and Ruhlin to fight for Bridgeport, where he intends to pull off fight beginning in February. Corbett said he would prefer to fight for a slowe purse, to which Mr. Write replied that he would give that amount of money if the fight with Jeffres could be arranged.

Later in the evening Mr. Witte went to the Manhattan Theatre, where he made the same proposition to Billy Brady, manager of Jegress Brady more formed Mr. Witte that there wasn't a chance of Jeffries and Corbett ever righting, as the Champion would not think of fighting Corbett because of the scandal following the result of the Corbett-McCoy battle. Hrady told Mr. Witte, however, that he was prepared to listen to a bid for the Runlin-Jeffries fight.

As soon as Tom O'Rourke learned that Witte was here from Cincinati with an offer for the vig fight, he declared he would be a bidder and was willing to offer the fighters 69 per cent. of the receipts. O'Rourke would not state where he intended to hold the fight, but later in the evening an Evening World reporter learned from a very reliable source that he intende to hold fights near Bridgeport. Trainer MacMasters, on the front platform, also got a cheer. He said the men were all in the pink of condition and ready for a fight. But what pleased him most was the clear weather. The wet weather, he frankly said, would give Yale a vest advantage. The dry weather would build the men up and dry the field so that Harvard could run end plays.
